

The Decision Log Entry

Five lines, kept every time, worth more than any certificate.

Date, decision, options weighed:

What each option would cost: and to whom. Including the option you took.

What was traded away: named plainly. Every real decision trades something.

Who made the call: Not who was in the room; who decided.

Review date:

A decision without a review date is a decision nobody has to defend.